Closer to your heart - Moo0 System Monitor allows you to customize the data you wish to see and make it appear whenever you want. Find the answers - Moo0 System Monitor has been designed to quickly solve or find solutions to the issues that may be affecting the system. Portable - Install Moo0 System Monitor on a USB drive and instantly run it on any computer! Main features:

- Monitor your system's performance in different ways: by CPU level, memory usage, average load, average uptime and number of listed apps, etc.
- Manage and adjust your system's performance levels (set a higher level for your CPU and/or GPU)
- Customize data displayed in the main window: CPU level, memory usage, CPU performance, temperature, set a specific load average, etc.
- Set fixed refresh intervals, show apps in the system tray or as a list and hide others
- Set the transparency level of the frame to enable or disable the frame background
- Configure the program to start automatically at system startup
- Moo0 System Monitor is available in several languages: Czech, English, Polish, German, Spanish, French, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, Ukrainian
- Set themes (customize your application's look)
- Protect your program from being deleted or move it to a different location on your PC, even after removing it
- Save time and ease your work: full-screen the frame and don't have to wait for the screen to refresh.
- Use the mouse scroll wheel to move the frame around the screen
- Display system CPU usage as percent

While it may lack any sort of graphical feedback, it's worth noting that Version 2.4.2 features a much needed and welcomed overhaul of its rather minimalistic UI with a cleaner interface design that looks more pleasing to the eye, as well as better navigation capabilities. This is probably due in part to its move from the outdated Flatpak player to the shiny new Docker. Moo0 System Monitor - Monitor and tweak your Windows 10 and Windows 7 performance. Automatic refreshing, FPS on the current slot, real-time Usage chart 09e8f5149f
